GENERAL BUSINESS ACTIVITIES

CONSILIUM™

THE ART AND SCIENCE OF RISK RESOLUTION

CONSILIUM IS AT THE FOREFRONT OF THE DELIVERY OF SPECIALIST INTERNATIONAL RISK AND SECURITY SOLUTIONS.

Consilium's prime capability is one of extreme expertise combined with total and secure client confidentiality for its assignments and activities.

Consilium's Leadership Team is comprised of internationally acclaimed expert practitioners; they are commercially experienced and have delivered numerous successful and novel solutions under extreme risk.

Current business activities and service lines are international in nature and typically managed and administered from London, Abu Dhabi, Lagos, Manila or New York.

Consilium offers timely and effective solutions to extraordinary, challenging or complex situations involving risk or threat to governmental, corporate or individual assets. This specialisation exploits and re-focuses the area of the security sector that has otherwise been diluted into what have typically become analysis and risk reporting services.

The high-end specialisation of Consilium engages with clients and service lines that require innovative risk resolution or situational solutions whilst ensuring zero disclosure risk.

CONSILIUM HAS AN EFFECTIVE AND PROPORTIONATE GLOBAL SECURITY OFFER, WHICH COMPLEMENTS CORE BUSINESS ACTIVITIES - EASING GOVERNMENTAL, REGULATORY, INVESTOR AND INSURANCE CONCERNS GLOBALLY ACROSS MULTIPLE SECTORS.

Consilium's internationally experienced risk and security team identifies, manages and reduces risk in governmental and commercial environments globally to protect assets and value.

Consilium has the expertise, resources and capabilities to design and deliver risk and security project management for both emerging and current threats.

Consilium delivers responsive, flexible and proportionate on the ground security and advisory programmes. These are well resourced and invariably employ state-of-the-art technology to enhance operational capabilities. They are led by professionally astute management teams who seek to exceed the client's expectations while remaining commercially efficient.

All service lines (operations) within Consilium are conducted by internationally recognised expert practitioners (military, law enforcement, agency, customs, foreign and home Ministries) – these individuals are either full time employees or a pool resource to Consilium. All are personally vetted by the company leadership for operational experience, competence and unmitigated discretion. All are versed in governmental business and commercial specialist counter risk service lines.

Consilium operates a “team to task” concept. The output from each area of Consilium's offer is widely regarded as specialist and “best in class”. Consilium's resources are readily sought by government agencies, corporates and ultra high net worth individuals. All Consilium operatives are known personally by the senior management team, many of whom they have deployed on previous assignments. All Consilium operatives are hand-picked for their specialist expertise and are the very best in their field.
